

Today's Date:

EXTRA CREDIT: Science in the News

Worth 5 points

1. Select a recent (within 1 month) article related to science.
2. Quickly read through the entire section making sure it is interesting to you and science related.
3. Cut out the article and glue it onto a regular sheet of paper. Be sure to cut out the entire article! NO CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN TO INCOMPLETE OR OUTDATED ARTICLES.
4. Re-read the article carefully and highlight the main ideas, focusing on the Who, What, Where and When.
5. Fill in the following:
  - a) Title:
  - b) Author's name (everything was written by someone; Staff writer is OK).
  - c) Source, date of publication
  - d) Select and circle in the article 3 vocabulary words that are essential to the understanding of this article. Preferably, they should be new words to you. Define these words in 5 words or less.
  - e) Write a summary of the article in paragraph form; 5-10 good sentences.
6. Write at least one question that this article posed to you.
7. Present the article to the class.